
Call for Papers

“Digital Fragmentations and Digital Sovereignty”

The Center for Advanced Security, Strategic and Integration Studies (CASSIS) at University of Bonn invites your contribution to an edited volume about “Digital Fragmentations and Digital Sovereignty” as part to an international online conference on “Digital Fragmentations and Digital Sovereignty” (17-18 September 2021). Our goal is to advance interdisciplinary and transdisciplinary research on the topic of digital sovereignty, data regulation, cyber security and internet governance.

Daft papers will be considered if they have not been previously published. If you are interested in a contribution, please send us an abstract of 800 to 1.000 words by 10 June 2021. The length of the final submission should be between 8.000 and 10.000 words by 12 September 2021.

Suggested topics include, inter alia:

- Theoretical, empirical, or comparative analysis of digital sovereignty
- The conceptualization and taxonomies of Internet fragmentation
- Tensions between national Cybersecurity/digital sovereignty and free and open Internet
- Theoretical, empirical, or comparative analysis of data protection regulations
- Global Internet Governance and the power struggle between great powers and platforms
- International tech competition and digital fragmentation

Please find further information in the Call of Papers attached to the e-mail. Authors will be invited to the international online conference on 17-18 September 2021. If you have any questions, please do contact Dr. Ying Huang under: yhuang@uni-bonn.de.